Attempt to Withhold Wages.

A few months ago employes on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad were | alley south of Twenty-first street. much disturbed over a collection agency of West Virginia buying up claims from merchants on the line at fifty cents on the dollar and garnisheeing employes wages to get their pay. It created much trouble and distress, as no excuse was taken for failure to pay bills. The same agency is new giving the Pennsylvania employes on the main line similar trouble in New Jersey. In Pennsylvania it was attempted, but was baffled by an adverse decision rendered by Attorney General Elkins. The collection agency works on this plan: Names of local of the railroad company are secured, and then follows a letter which imparts the information that the West Virginia Agency will buy all such claims for fifty cents on the dollar. After the claim is purchased, it becomes the sole property of the collection agency, which at once proceeds to collect it. An action of attachment is instituted in West Virginia courts, in which State wages of employes can be garnisheed. When secured, the attachment is served on the railroad company as custodian of the debtor's money, and an effort is made to collect. Not until it was undertaken in Pennsylvania, has the agency been thwarted in its plans.

An Address to Voters.

The board of trustees of the Indiana Anti-saloon League yesterday issued the following address "To the Voters of Indiana:

"The liquor interests of the State are making a most determined effort to secure | C. C. Appellee's brief (8) and application | comfort. The nurse did his duty and no the repeal of the Nicholson law by the next Legislature, notwithstanding the fact that the law was passed in response to a general sentiment, receiving a majority vote of both political parties in both House and Senate. Because of the very popularity of the law, shown by the closing of 100 saloons in five weeks following the upholding of the power of attorney by the Supreme Court, and the springing up of the remonstrances in a score of towns, the saloonists hasten to try to force candidates for the Legislature into pledges to vote in the matter contrary to the wishes of a majority of their constituents They say, 'it will be too late to get promises after election." "In passing this law the Legislature took It is expected that the new Union station | a position of neutrality, and handed the of the Big Four and the Lake Erie & West- liquor problem over to the people. It is demanded now that the legislators become ready for occupancy by the middle of next | the companions of the saloon and force and to avow that those who know enough to vote for them do not know enough to their homes or not. We confidently appeal. not only to temperance people, but to all this nefarious, un-American plan shall not succeed-that the voters of Indiana stand issue, that public officials must take sides either with the saloon or with the people. prebable another attempt will be made to let it be known at once. Other Boys Released. Twenty-five small boys were seated in a long row before Judge Stubbs in the Juvenile Court yesterday afternoon, and betheir parents. There were no heavy charges against any of the boys, although several were charged with petty stealing. Five boys, all colored, were fined and sent to jail, and the others were discharged, released under suspended sentence, and some ordered flogged at home.

The story of "other boys" who are bad was repeated by more than For local sewer in Hamilton avenue and one mother. The children telling their stories caused considerable amusement as they overstepped the rules of the court in open contradiction of each other's state-

The most amusing circumstance of the afternoon was when Eddie Miller, a small colored boy, was arraigned before Judge Stubbs, charged with assault and battery on Maurice Finley, a grown man. However, Finley presented a bad looking eye that was struck by the end of a bottle thrown by Miller. The boy persistently denied that he threw the bottle and said it was another poy. He also said he was at home and then said he was fishing when Finley was hit. His record was against him, as several witnesses testified that young Miller is in the habit of throwing stones. Judge Stubbs fined him $1 and costs and sent him to jail till his father came. He was then released upon the boy's father promising to give him a "good thrashing. WILL IS PROBATED.

Bequests Made by Babette Rheinheimer-Campbell Hay's Estate. The will of Babette Rheinheimer was admitted to probate yesterday and her husband, Nathan Rheinheimer, qualified as executor with a bond of $500. The estate included several valuable pieces of real estate, which are left to all the children of the deceased, except Lillie Webb, of Kaolin, Mo., to whom a bequest of $1,000 in cash is made. The store and contents of the deceased are left to her daughter, Hannah Baum. The will specifies that the estate shall be preserved intact and that the heirs shall pay to Nathan Rheinheimer $60 a month during his life. Mrs. Rheinheimer also left $100 to the Jewish Orphan Asylum at Cleveland, O., and $100 to the Hebrew Ladies' Aid Society of this city, to purchase her a perpetual membership, the amount to be invested so that it will earn enough to pay her annual dues. Campbell H. Cobb has qualified as administrator of the estate of Campbell Hay. giving bond in the sum of $300.

Law Held to Be Good.

Judge Leathers yesterday decided that the law providing for the collection, as costs, of a fee of $5 for defense of all uncontested divorce cases was valid. The law was attacked on the ground that it was special legislation. The court held that the Legislature had power to pass such a law, as it was for the public good. THE COURT RECORD.

Lewisville's Case of Smallpox. To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: Mr. Stoner was taken sick on Saturday; no physician was called until Monday at 10 a. m., when Dr. Graf was called and said he thought it was smallpox; he saw him again in the evening and decided positively that it was smallpox. Dr. Mendenhall, secretary of the County Health Board, saw him on Tuesday morning. Dr. R. A. Smith came in the afternoon of Tuesday and took charge of the case. The doctors gave him water and food on Tuesday; the doors were not locked, as he helped himself to water on Tuesday night. After telephoning all over the adjoining counties to get a nurse the Health Board and several citizens sent a man to Indianapolis to the Health Board with instructions to bring back the best nurse he could get; there was no limit as to price to be paid. In the meantime an ideal location was found for a pesthouse; a 12x14-foot room was built, 19896. Albert G. Johnson vs. Emma John- with shingle roof. The furniture from the room he was occupying was taken there. The nurse, Dr. Ford, arrived from Indianapolis on Wednesday at 7:20 a. m., took charge and moved the patient to the pesthouse. There was not a thing asked for by the nurse that was not furnished, and Co. vs. Charles Kenney et al. Putnam everything was done that could be for his one has any fault to find. The people here did their duty, and no one has an honest or truthful reason to find any fault. The place he was taken to was fine, the treatment he received was the best that money ($20) per hundred. could buy, the burial was decent and in order. FRUIT AND VEGETABLE PRICES FLUCTUATE WITH LOWER TREND.

Quality and Quantity of Apples Steadily Improving-Condition of the Local Grain Trade.

Most articles have a lower tendency. Irish potatoes, cabbage, turnips and beets are easy. Green beans are good sellers. The quality of apples steadily improves and the supply now will be equal to the demand. Few oranges are on the market, but lemons and bananas are plentiful. Wheat, corn, oats and flour are firmer than a week ago Wholesale grocers are having a good summer trade. Dry goods houses continue to report business quiet and prices of bleached goods easier. Hides are slow and leather livelier. The seed market is slow, with prospect of improvement next month.

Indianapolis Grain Market.

The local grain market shows activity, with steady prices. Receipts of wheat and corn are increasing, but few oats are offered. Track bids, as reported by the secretary of the Board of Trade, ruled yesterday as follows:
